

Word Problems :: Simple Addition

Jim ate two pieces of candy. Then he ate three more. How many pieces of candy did Jim eat?

Write the problem: _____

$2 + 3 = ?$

Answer: _____

5

Suzie put ten sea shells in a bucket. Later she added five more shells. How many sea shells did Suzie have in the bucket?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Elen picked five apples on Monday, and eight apples on Tuesday. How many apples did she pick in all?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Juan scored eight points in the first half, and seven points in the second half. How many points did Juan score?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Gavin ate nine jelly beans before recess, and three jelly beans after recess. How many jelly beans did Gavin eat?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Jim ate two pieces of candy. Then he ate three more. How many pieces of candy did Jim eat?

Write the problem: $2 + 3 = ?$

Answer: 5

Suzie put ten sea shells in a bucket. Later she added five more shells. How many sea shells did Suzie have in the bucket?

Write the problem: $10 + 5 = ?$

Answer: 15

Elen picked five apples on Monday, and eight apples on Tuesday. How many apples did she pick in all?

Write the problem: $5 + 8 = ?$

Answer: 13

Juan scored eight points in the first half, and seven points in the second half. How many points did Juan score?

Write the problem: $8 + 7 = ?$

Answer: 15

Gavin ate nine jelly beans before recess, and three jelly beans after recess. How many jelly beans did Gavin eat?

Write the problem: $9 + 3 = ?$

Answer: 12