

Word Problems :: Simple Addition - Add Three Numbers

James was picking apples. He picked three apples, then he picked two more. Then he picked six more. How many apples did James pick?

Write the problem: $3 + 2 + 6 = ?$ _____

Answer: 11 _____

Sid threw a party. Five kids from his school came. Four kids from his rugby team came, and one from karate class. How many kids came?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Mom made cupcakes. She made five lemon cupcakes, five chocolate cupcakes, and five vanilla cupcakes. How many did she make?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

Jim went to the zoo. He saw three monkeys playing, four monkeys climbing, and one sleeping monkey. How many monkeys did Jim see?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

At the Halloween party John counted three princesses, five ghosts and four vampires. How many kids did John count at the party?

Write the problem: _____

Answer: _____

James was picking apples. He picked three apples, then he picked two more. Then he picked six more. How many apples did James pick?

Write the problem:

$$3 + 2 + 6 = ?$$

Answer:

11

Sid threw a party. Five kids from his school came. Four kids from his rugby team came, and one from karate class. How many kids came?

Write the problem:

$$5 + 4 + 1 = ?$$

Answer:

10

Mom made cupcakes. She made five lemon cupcakes, five chocolate cupcakes, and five vanilla cupcakes. How many did she make?

Write the problem:

$$5 + 5 + 5 = ?$$

Answer:

15

Jim went to the zoo. He saw three monkeys playing, four monkeys climbing, and one sleeping monkey. How many monkeys did Jim see?

Write the problem:

$$3 + 4 + 1$$

Answer:

8

At the Halloween party John counted three princesses, five ghosts and four vampires. How many kids did John count at the party?

Write the problem:

$$3 + 5 + 4 = ?$$

Answer:

12